Interruptions . . .

When you are exasperated by interruptions, try to remember that their very frequency may indicate the valuableness of your life. Only the people who are full of help and strength are burdened by other people's needs. The interruptions which you tolerate are the credentials of your indispensability. The greatest condemnation that anybody could incur — and it is a danger to guard against — is to be so independent, so unhelpful, that nobody ever interrupts you, and you are left comfortably alone.
